Over Seven Points Advance in the Metropolitan Shares.

The feature of the day on the local market was an advance of practically seven points in the stock of the National Metropolitan Bank, for which, like all other movements of the kind, there's a other movements of the kind, there's a reason. The sale of the holdings of Messrs. Woodward and Parker, and the making of a favorable bid for the Riggs estate holdings, and this in the interest of the present directors and officials. The first sale, a small lot, was at 110, and then three lots sold at 217.

Gas bonds were firmer, selling to 199% from an opening at the old fixed price, 1994.

Railway 4's were in demand at 85% to Railway 4's were in demand at 85% to a stronger closing at 86.

Washington and Virginia Railway shares were the most active on the list, and gained a point on the declaration of 1 per cent on the common and 1% on the preferred, as indicated yesterday. Sales were made at 30% 31. The report of the company, submitted at the annual meeting yesterday afternoon, showed a surplus, after paying interest for the fiscal year ended December 31, of $83,466.61. The preferred shares sold at 68.

Traction shares were steady at 128%.

Prominent Hebrews Call on President

The President today held a conference with prominent Hebrews of this coun-as any other American citizen, might have the protection of his Government when in Russia.

In the party are Jacob Schiff, Judge Mayer Sulzberger, and Louis Marshall, representing the American Jewish Committée; Simon Wolf, of this city; J. Walter Freiberg and Bernard Bettman, of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and Adolph Kraus Ludges of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and Adolph Kraus, Judge Philip Stein, and Jacob Furth, of the Independent Order of B'nai B'rith; Secretary Nagel, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, and a representative of the State Department. Secretary Knox would have been present in person at the conference and lunch but for his absence from the city.
